Tagore Society of Houston
Houston, TX

Attn: TSH Executive Committee

Sub: Special Privileges for Tagore Society Houston

Houston Durga Bari Society, hereinafter referred to as the HDDBS, recognizes Tagore Society of Houston, hereinafter referred to as TSH, as an "Alliance" organization as described by the HDDBS Constitution, and hereby agree to provide the following benefits to TSH in accordance with the terms provided below.

The term of this Agreement is effective from as of Jan 1, 2009 and shall expire on December 31, 2010, unless renewed by mutual Agreement.

HDDBS will make the auditorium available to TSH at free of rent for TSH cultural and official events (non-commercial events that have no entry fee for community members) such as Swamiji-Netaji and Nazrul-Rabindranath birth anniversaries and co-sponsored by HDDBS, TSH General Body Meeting and TSH election provided these events are held on Sunday afternoon only and the auditorium has no prior booking by others.

For all other usage of HDDBS auditorium, HDDBS shall charge TSH at 50% of the published rental rate for the members. In addition to the above rental cost, HDDBS shall charge TSH any labor cost involved with these rentals including cleaning, setting up auditorium, serving, and, for any other labor and technician support provided. All other rules and regulation of rental shall apply.

HDDBS would provide TSH space for holding meetings within the complex at free of cost provided the space is not occupied by others by prior appointment. Once the new building is completed and logistics worked out, space will be determined for future use.

HDDBS intends to hold a naming competition for the new Education and Cultural building and would like a nominated TSH representative to be involved in this process and this nominated representative must be a member of HDDBS.

HDDBS sincerely believes that this cements the relationship between HDDBS and TSH on an on-going basis and both organizations will flourish and serve the community together. Please contact us should you require any clarifications.

Sincerely,

Partha S Chatterjee
